Dating Violence

Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the alleged victim.

• Includes sexual or physical abuse
• Includes threats of such abuse
• The existence of a covered relationship is based on the totality of the circumstances
Violence committed by:
- a current spouse, former spouse or intimate partner
- a person whom shares a child
- a person who is cohabiting with or cohabitated with the alleged victim
Stalking

Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others OR suffer substantial emotional distress.

- Can be direct actions or through third parties
- Could include the use of devices or other methods
- Includes following, monitoring, observing, surveilling, threatening, communicating to or about a person, or interfering with a person’s property
Sexual Exploitation

Taking non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for one’s own advantage or benefit, or for the benefit or advantage of anyone other than the one being exploited.

Examples include:

- Non-consensual photos, videos, or audio of sexual activity
- Non-consensual distribution of photo, video, or audio of sexual activity, even if the sexual activity was consensual
- Intentionally and inappropriately exposing one’s breast, buttocks, groin, or genitals in non-consensual circumstances
Nonconsensual Sexual Contact

Any physical contact with another person of a sexual nature without the person’s consent.

Includes:
- Touching of another’s intimate parts (genitalia, groin, breasts, buttocks)
- Touching a person with one’s own intimate parts; or
- Forcing a person to touch his or her own or another person’s intimate parts
Nonconsensual Sexual Penetration

Any penetration of another’s body parts without the person’s consent.

Includes:

- Penetration of the vagina, anus, or mouth by a penis, object, tongue, finger, or other body part
- Contact between the mouth of one person and the genitals or anus of another person
Sexual Harassment (Student on Student)

Unwelcome verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct based on sex (including gender stereotypes), determined by a Reasonable Person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to participate in or to benefit from an institutional education program or activity in violation of Title IX.
Sexual Harassment (Other)

Unwelcome verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct, based on sex (including gender stereotypes) that may be any of the following:
• Implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of employment status in a course program or activity

• A basis for employment or education decisions; OR

• Sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive to interfere with one’s work or educational performance creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment

• Note: Behavior may rise to the level of a Title IX violation
Comparing Jurisdiction

Title IX
- Institution’s program or activity the United States
  - Institution property
  - Institution sponsored or affiliated events [substantial control is key]
  - Buildings owned or controlled by officially recognized student organizations

Sexual Misconduct
- Institution property
- Institution-sponsored or affiliated events
- Off campus as defined by the institution policies
- Domestic or abroad
The Complaint Process
Formal Complaint § 106.30

• A document filed by a Complainant OR signed by the Title IX Coordinator
• Alleges Sexual Harassment (Title IX)
• Requests an investigation
• Note: must be filed while the Complainant is participating in or attempting to participate in an education program or activity
Title IX Coordinator Initiated Complaints

• TIXC does NOT become the Complainant

• When to sign? (Permissible)
  – Multiple reports against the same Respondent
  – Violent behavior or use of a weapon

• Caution: Be mindful of bias and conflicts of interest claims
Complaint Process

• If not a Formal Complaint under Title IX may be a complaint under Sexual Misconduct

• Recommended: Confirm with the Complainant (in writing) that they wish to investigate their claims

• Once a complaint is filed the timeframe for completion begins
Complaint Consolidation

• Permissible consolidation when allegations arise out of the same facts or circumstances:
  – Against more than one Respondent
  – By more than one Complainant against one or more Respondents
  – Cross complaints

• Parties must have the opportunity to object; institution makes final determination
Support Services & Interim Measures §106.30

• Non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services must be offered to the Complainant
  – USG policy requires offering support services to Respondents as well

• Offered upon receiving a report [no Formal Complaint is required]

• Ex: counseling, modifications to work or class schedules, mutual no contact directives
The Investigation Process
Evidentiary Considerations § 106.45(b)(5)

• The burden of proof AND burden of gathering evidence is on the institution

• Information protected by legal privilege, may not be accessed, disclosed or relied upon unless a waiver is obtained

• Questions and evidence regarding the Complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant, UNLESS used to prove:
  – Someone other than the Respondent committed the conduct OR – Offered to prove consent between the parties
Decisions regarding student and employee alleged misconduct are based on a preponderance of the evidence.
Advisors

Title IX Complaints
- Parties have a right to an advisor of their choice
- Advisor may accompany party to all meetings and hearings
- Provided a copy of the investigation report and directly related information
- All communication will be between the institution and the party

Sexual Misconduct Complaints
- Parties have a right to an advisor of their choice
- Advisor may accompany party to all meetings and hearings
- All communication will be between the institution and the party
False Statements

Updated standard to cover false statements knowingly made to an institution official

Amnesty

Updated to explicitly only apply to information regarding student consumption of drugs or alcohol
Retaliation § 106.71

• Who is protected: Reporters, Complainants, Witnesses, Respondents, even those who choose to not participate

• What is protected: Intimidation, threats, coercion, discrimination
  – Ex. Charging individuals for code of conduct violations that arise out of the same facts or circumstances
  – Ex. Not keeping the identity of the Complainant, Respondent, or any witnesses confidential
The Investigation Report §106.45(5)(vii)

• Must fairly summarize relevant evidence

• An objective evaluation of the information [inculpatory and exculpatory]
  – Credibility assessments cannot be based on a person’s status

• Sample report sections still apply

• Final report provided to the parties at least 10 days calendar days prior to the hearing
Access to Information §106.45(b)(5)(vi)

• Parties have a right to review the investigation report prior to its finalization

• Parties have a right to receive a copy of all directly related information

• Procedurally can occur simultaneously or at different times

• 10 calendar days to review
Informal Resolution
Considerations

• The institution is a party to the informal resolution
  – Informal resolution is appropriate
  – The terms of the informal resolution are appropriate

• Parties must engage in the process voluntary

• Parties may end the informal resolution process any time prior to reaching the terms
Informal Resolution under Title IX §106.45(b)(9)

- Not permissible for student allegations against employees
- A Formal Complaint must be filed
- The parties have received notice and explanation of the process and consequences of informal resolution
- The parties have voluntary agreed to engage in the process
Formal Adjudication
Live Hearing §106.45(b)(6)

• The Final Rule mandates a bifurcated process

• Final determinations of responsibility and sanctions are made by decision-makers
  – CANNOT be the Title IX Coordinator or assigned investigator

• New due process considerations
  – Cross examination
  – Relevancy determinations
  – Impact of party or witness refusal to submit to cross-examination
Adjudication Processes

Students
- All matters not informally resolved will be heard by a Hearing Panel
- Hearing Panels comprised of trained faculty and staff

Employees
- Title IX matters not informally resolved will be heard by a designated decision-maker
  - Single decision-maker OR panel
- Sexual Misconduct matters not informally resolved will be resolved according to previously established procedures
  - Institutions may choose to offer a hearing
The Written Decision §106.45(b)(7)

• Provided to both parties simultaneously must include:
  – The allegations
  – The procedural steps from the complaint through determination
  – Findings of fact supporting the determination
  – Determinations regarding responsibility, sanctions (and remedies) along with the supporting evidence and rationale
  – Information on the appeals process
Appeals

• Parties will continue to have both institutional level and Board level appeal opportunities

• Grounds for an appeal:
  – New information
  – Procedural Error
    • Ex. Bias or conflict of interest of Title IX personnel
  – Finding inconsistent with the weight of the information
