

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK NOV. 10-14, 2025

GO GLOBAL WITH US!

Mon. Nov. 10	Internationalize Your Journey • 10-11:00 a.m. • Location: Student Center, 2nd floor lounge • Students, faculty, and staff, stop by the 2nd-floor lounge in the Student Center to meet the Internationalization team and learn how we can help you enhance your education, career preparation, and/or professional development through global learning. Looking forward to seeing you there!
	Scholarships and Grants for Education Abroad • 11:00 a.m.- Noon • Location: B-1600/online • Learn about competitive scholarships and grant programs that can help fund study abroad, graduate school and independent research. Students at all levels are welcome to attend. Click the zoom link to join: https://ggc-edu.zoom.us/j/81360960322
	Connecting Linguistic Competence and Social Emotional Learning in the Elementary Classroom • 12:30-1:30 p.m. • Location: B-1950 Join this classroom session to explore the intersection of linguistic competence and social-emotional learning (SEL) in the elementary classroom. Participants will learn strategies to help students develop strong language skills while fostering self-awareness, empathy, and effective communication. The session will provide practical examples that demonstrate how integrating language instruction with SEL can enhance both academic achievement and social growth.
Tue. Nov. 11	Insights from the Consul General of Lithuania • 9:30-10:45 a.m. • Location: Stephens Executive Forum/W-1210 • Lithuanian Consul General Dovydas Spokauskas will speak on global security, the U.S. role in relation to NATO Eastern border, energy security, and hybrid threats. Gain valuable insights into the challenges and strategies shaping today's geopolitical landscape.
	World Language Tables • Noon-1:30 p.m. • Location: Student Center, 2nd floor lounge • Explore world languages and cultures at tables hosted by faculty, staff, and student volunteers at this biannual event.
	Take the Next Step Towards Peace Corps Service • 1-2:00 p.m. • Location: W-2143 • Join us to explore how the Peace Corps can provide you with a competitive advantage. You'll also learn about the Peace Corps Prep Program, which prepares students to be competitive candidates for Peace Corps volunteer service and helps them gain globally focused skills for employment in other industries. A local Peace Corps representative will discuss the mission, sectors, and volunteer life.
Wed. Nov. 12	Seoul Connections • 2-4:00 p.m. • Location: B-1000/The Belonging Center • Celebrate Korean culture through snacks, games, K-pop, and conversation. This is a wonderful opportunity to meet GGC's Korean exchange students, learn, laugh and build global friendships.
	International Thanksgiving Feast/Study Abroad Fair • Noon-2:00 p.m. • Location: LVIS • Feast on traditional U.S. Thanksgiving fare and various international cuisines while enjoying live entertainment and presentations highlighting upcoming opportunities to study abroad.
	Globally Connected Teaching and Learning • 10-11:00 a.m. • Location: C-1100/online • In this information session, campus members of all roles will identify the basic elements of the teaching pedagogy referred to as virtual exchange or collaborative online international learning (VE/COIL). Among other benefits, VE/COIL facilitates inclusivity, experiential learning, and career preparation for students as well as continuous learning for faculty, and increased visibility for GGC, all priorities for our college. Click the zoom link to join: https://ggc-edu.zoom.us/j/87498193945
Thur. Nov. 13	Exploring Ecuador: Culture, Art and Traditions • 12:30-1:30 p.m. • Location: C-2120/Online • Join this class session for an interactive journey into Ecuadorian culture – exploring its art, regions, colors, and traditions. This bilingual event will feature engaging activities with special guests. Participate in person or join us remotely on Teams! Join the Meeting Meeting ID: 239 856 737 569 8 Passcode: gZ9vy9Kd
	World Music & Poetry • 2-3:00 p.m. • Location: B-Atrium • Enjoy performances of music, dance, and poetry by students, staff, and faculty, celebrating diverse cultures and languages from around the world.
	No-English Networking Night • 5:30-6:30 p.m. • Location: W-2119 • Join the Language & Linguistics Society (LLS) for an immersive evening of language learning with a catch –no one can speak English! This event is designed for students studying different languages to connect and practice speaking in their target language. Don't worry if you get stuck – LLS officers will be nearby to help.
Fri. Nov. 14	Impact of the New International Dis/Order on Migration and Peace • 9:50-10:50 a.m. • Location: C-1100 This symposium brings together faculty from GGC and Universidad Iberoamericana Ciudad de Mexico to analyze the geopolitical shifts and their ramifications for Mexican-U.S. immigration and regional stability.
	Sigma Iota Rho Induction Ceremony • Noon-1:00 PM • Location: Online • Interested in learning more about how joining this prestigious honor society can benefit you? Join us as we induct the newest members of Sigma Iota Rho Honor Society for International Studies. Dr. David Felsen will give the keynote address on "Challenges in the Western Balkans." Click the zoom link to join: https://ggc-edu.zoom.us/j/89862510608